IDEAS OF COMMUNITY IN THE EARLY MODERN WORLD, 1500-1700

A ONE-DAY OXFORD GRADUATE WORKSHOP

20TH APRIL, 2020

LINCOLN COLLEGE, BERROW BUILDING, LOWER LECTURE ROOM

CONVENORS: ALEX BEETON, ELLEN PATERSON

9.00-9.30 WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

9.30-11.00 COMMUNITY IN A GLOBAL WORLD

‘Church of England Clerics and the Religious Diversity of the Ottoman World: The Case of Dr John Covel, 1670-77’ Charles Beirouti (New College)

‘Better than the House of Any Stranger’: Identity and Space at the English and Dutch Factories in Hirado, 1609-1640’ Callum Kelly (Wadham College)

“Fear, Rumour, and Epidemic Disease: Building Communities in Seventeenth-Century North America” Angeliki Myrillas-Brazeau (Lincoln College)

11.00-11.30 REFRESHMENT BREAK

11.30-12.30 COMMUNITY AND RELIGION

‘Exiles or Cosmopolitans? Drama and Community at the English Catholic Colleges Abroad’ Christopher Archibald (New College)

“Against all the Catholics’: The Spanish Ambassadors’ Support of English Recusants in Elizabethan England’ Heather McTaggart (Lincoln College)

12.30-1.30 LUNCH

1.30-3.00 COMMUNITY AND RHETORIC

‘Petitioning Communities? The Leathersellers’ Company and Edward Darcy’s Leather Patent, 1592-6’ Ellen Paterson (Lincoln College)

“Brought out of the English language into German’: Confessional Communities in Print 1547-1603’ Kate Shore (Lincoln College)

‘Was there an Erasmian community in England, 1499-1536?’ Tim Wade (New College)

3.00-3.30 REFRESHMENT BREAK

3.30-4.30 COMMUNITY AND VIOLENCE

'Early Modern Militias and the Boundaries of Community' Louis Morris (Pembroke College)

“She was not only your Mother but your Captain’: English Nuns, Religious Violence, and Communal Identity in the Dutch Revolt’ Laura Roberts (Magdalen College)

4.30-5.00 REFRESHMENT BREAK

5.00-6.00 KEYNOTE SPEECH

'The many lives of Gaspar Gomes de Faria: Community and Empire in Portuguese India' Professor Giuseppe Marcocci (Exeter College)